

INSTRUCTIONS FOR GAINING PRO HAC VICE ADMISSION TO PRACTICE BEFORE
THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Please read all instructions carefully to avoid unnecessary processing delays.

Pursuant to LRCiv 83.1(b)(3), any member in good standing of the Bar of any Federal Court and who neither resides nor maintains an office for the practice of law in the District of Arizona, may be admitted to practice in this District upon appropriate pro hac vice application and proposed order for admission.

NOTE also that pursuant to LRCiv 83.1(b)(3), if the applicant becomes an Arizona resident and/or intends to maintain a principal office for practice in Arizona, he or she must reapply under LRCiv 83.1(a).

Enter your complete name, law firm name, address and phone number and party that you are appearing for.

Enter case caption and case number.

Enter your complete name and the party that you are appearing for and all personal and business information requested.

List all State, Federal, and Circuit Courts to which you have been admitted. If you are not a member in good standing, give explanation on application form or submit this information along with your completed application. NOTE: You must attach a current, ORIGINAL Certificate of Good Standing from the bar of a Federal Court in which you are admitted dated no more than 45 days prior to submission of your application to this court.

If you have concurrently, or within 1 year of this application, made pro hac vice applications to this Court, list all actions. If application was denied, give explanation on application form or submit this information along with your completed application.

If you currently are the subject of a disciplinary investigation or proceeding; or if you were ever disbarred from practice in any Court, provide all relevant information regarding the investigation, and submit that information along with your completed application.

Sign and date the application. The application must bear an original signature. Your signature attests to your reading and understanding of the Standards for Professional Conduct as adopted by the U.S. District Court for the District of Arizona, and that you will comply with LRCiv 83.1(c).
