

The Federal Bar Association, Phoenix Chapter presents:

THE GREAT WESTERN DROUGHT AND ITS LEGAL SIGNIFICANCE

Guest Speaker:

Rhett B. Larson, Associate Professor of Law,
Arizona State University Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law

The drought that has stricken the western United States has challenged historical water practices and poses a number of questions to our legal system. Noted water scholar Professor Rhett B. Larson is the author of several works, including the forthcoming publication "Bankrupt Rivers." Please join us for lunch and Professor Larson's take on our evolving view of water in the West.
