

LRCiv 7.2
MOTIONS<sup>1</sup>

***

(h) Telephone and Video Conference Proceedings ~~Argument and Conferences~~. The Court may, in its discretion, order or allow oral argument on any motion or other proceeding by telephonic or video conference means to the fullest extent permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure and the law. ~~speaker telephone conference call, provided that all conversations of all parties are audible to each participant and the Court. Upon request of any party, such oral argument may be recorded by court reporter or other lawful method under such conditions as the Court shall deem practicable. Counsel shall request scheduling of such calls at a time convenient to all parties and the Court. The Court may direct which party shall pay the cost of the call. Pursuant to LRCiv 43.1, all forms, means, and manner of capturing, recording, broadcasting, transmitting, and/or storing of such proceedings by use of electronic, photographic, audio and/or visual means or devices are prohibited unless otherwise ordered by the Court.~~

***