10 11 12 13	UPDATED GENERAL ORDERS INDEX ) ) GENERAL ORDER 98-1
14	To facilitate the manageable review of all active general orders,
15	IT IS ORDERED that a new General Orders Index be adopted reflecting those general orders
16	still in effect that establish current court policies as of this date. These active general orders will
17	henceforth be integrated into a new General Orders numbering system for easy reference. General
18	Orders will be numbered consecutively each year prefaced by the last two digits of the calendar year in
19	which they are adopted. A copy of the new index is attached.
20	IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all obsolete general orders (those orders that have been
21	superseded by subsequent general orders, new local rules, or Judicial Conference policy) be indexed
22	chronologically and cross-referenced by subject-matter for ease of research purposes. Chronological
23	and subject-matter indices are attached.
24	The majority of the Judges of this Court have concurred in this Order.
25	DATED this 29th day of June, 1998.
